Practical grammar workshop for English language teachers

Samstag, 5. September 2020, 9:30 bis 13:00 Uhr, Zürich

Seminarleitung	John Potts Teacher trainer
Inhalt	In this practical workshop, we'll look at the range of tense forms in English, and analyze them in depth where necessary. In particular, we'll focus on concepts relating to aspect and time with reference to tense forms. We'll also look at how tense forms express a range of functions, as well as pronunciation, use/formality, syntax, and British and North American varieties. Additionally, we'll look at ways of introducing and practising some of these forms in class, using a range of approaches and activities. We'll especially focus on tenses that can cause problems for learners (and teachers!), and you as participants will be able to determine the agenda for the workshop as far as practicable so that your specific questions/issues can be addressed.
