

Patterns in English : analyzing clauses and sentences

Saturday, April 2 nd 2022, 9h30-13h00

Instructor	John Potts Teacher trainer
Contents	In this third grammar workshop for teachers, we'll look at a range of clause and sentence patterns in English, and analyze them in depth where necessary. In particular, we'll focus on finite and non-finite clauses, relative and participle clauses, as well as gerund and infinitive patterns. Additionally, we'll look at ways of introducing and practising some of these clauses and patterns in class, using a range of approaches and activities, at a range of levels. We'll especially focus on patterns that can cause problems for learners (and teachers!), and you as participants will be able to determine the agenda for the workshop as far as practicable so that your specific questions/issues can be addressed
